GREAT INTEREST IN AUTOMOBILE CONTEST

Many Prominent Men and Women, Boys and Girls Working for $2,000 In Prizes

First Grand Prize—Dog e King Car, to be given to the lucky contestant securing the highest vote.

Second Grand Prize—Ford Sedan, for contestant securing the second highest vote.

Third Grand Prize—Edison Talking Machine.

Fourth Grand Prize—Victor Talking Machine.

Last week the Daily Register inaugurated a great circulation campaign. The proposition is a big one, as $2,000 in prizes (not to mention commissions) is to be given away, absolutely free, with in the short period of 6 weeks.

Be sure and read carefully the Contest story in this space every day, for if you are not an active competitor for a handsome prize one of your friends will be and you will wish to be informed daily of all that is going on in the great race.

Spared No Expense

The Daily Register has spared no expense in getting up this contest. The list of awards is headed by two 1921 model automobiles. These cars are sold by the dealers for this county.

Then there will be two talking machines each valued at $150.00—a Victor and an Edison Diamond Disc. These have been purchased from local dealers and can be seen at their places of business.

Extra Votes

This contest has been divided into several periods and from Oct. 18 until 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 1, will be known as "Opportunity Period." This is a real inducement for you to get an early start for a real worker can secure 50,000 extra votes with a little effort. There will be given each candidate an "Opportunity" good for 10,000 votes, every time that a candidate turns in subscription business amounting to $18.00.

One two-year subscription will count the same as two one-year subscriptions; a three-year subscription counts the same as three one-year subscriptions—in other words, when you get enough business to amount to $18 or 33 1/3 per cent, that with this reduction they have still not reduced to where they were assessed.

jacent counties, is eligible to compete in the Daily Register contest.

Today's Livestock Markets

Cincinnati, Oct. 17—Cattle steady and slow; hogs strong and higher, all $9; Chicago higher.

Louisville, Oct. 17—Cattle 4000 best strong, others slow, tops $7.25; hogs 1,400, 15c to 25c higher, tops $8.75; sheep 100, steady, $3; lambs $7.

Weather for Kentucky

Fair tonight and Tuesday with slightly warmer temperature tonight.

Berea Supporters To Meet in Cincinnati

Prominent Cincinnatians, supporters of Berea College, have arranged a public meeting at the Hotel Gibson, in Cincinnati, Wednesday evening, to discuss the education of the mountain boys. Dr. Hutchins, president of the Berea College, will deliver the principal address. Dr. J. C. Day, a former Berea citizen, now a prominent minister of New York, and Mr. W. A. Julian, a manufacturer of the Queen City, who is a trustee of Berea College, are also on the program.

NO REDUCTION IN ASSESSMENT OF FARMS

Farmers of Kentucky need expect no 25 per cent reduction of farm land assessments, according to an announcement of Chairman J. A. Scott, of the State Tax Commission. Farm bureau organizations in different counties have been adopting resolutions calling for a 25 per cent reduction. The announcement in part follows:

"You should notify each taxpayer in this district that you will not stand for the 25 per cent reduction from last year and it might be well enough to give a written excuse."

"The trouble with the farmers' organization is that they lost sight of the fact that while farm lands have been reduced in value or sales prices something like 30 or 33 1/3 per cent, that with this reduction they have still not reduced to where they were assessed."

Irvine Home Burns

Irvine, Ky., Oct. 17—Fire caused by defective electric light wiring in the kitchen resulted in the destruction of the home of Jas. J. Johnson here Sunday morning. The fire occurred when the family was at church, but neighbors seeing the blaze rushed in and saved a large part of the furniture. The loss which was estimated at $1,000.

Only five of these "Opportunity Period" coupons good for 50,000 extra votes will be allowed any one candidate—but be sure to get your full five.

Sent In Nomination At Once

There is a nomination blank printed on another page of this issue. Anybody may clip these nomination blank and nominate one's self or some friend. The nomination blank is good for 10,000 votes, and if it is accompanied by $3,000 worth of subscription to the Daily Register it is good for 20,000 votes, while if accompanied by $18 worth of subscriptions to the Daily Register, the nomination blank will be worth 50,000 votes, and will also entitle the nominee to one "Opportunity Period" coupon good for 10,000 extra votes at once. After November 1, the value of the nomination coupon will be decreased, so send in your name or the name of the friends whom you would like to see win the two cars. Do this today. Do it now.

Special Vote Periods

From October 18 until November 1, 3 o'clock p.m., will be known as "Opportunity Period," in addition to the regular date schedule printed above, to each candidate turning in subscription business to the Daily Register amounting to $18 will be given an Opportunity Coupon good for 10,000 extra votes. No more than five Opportunity Coupons will be given to any one candidate. By far more votes are given during Opportunity Period for the same amount of cash subscription business than will be the case later. So get started early, as an early start is half the battle.

HAYS SAYS MAIL WILL BE MOVED

And Army Is Ready or Any Use, if Needed—All Workers To Be Out Nov. 5

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 17—The government, through various departments, today began a survey of the railroad strike situation. Officials from President Harding down to department bureau chiefs are watching the situation closely, hoping some means will be found to avoid paralyzing the nation's transportation system.

Postmaster General Hays said "the mails will be moved." It was said at the war department there was no official discussion there about the strike, but its Secretary Weeks called for reports about what the army could do they would be quickly forthcoming.

How Groups Will Walk Out

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Oct. 17—Eastern railroads are among those affected by the scheduled walkout of the five big brotherhoods on second and third group of carriers, it became known today. Like the first group the strike on the second division of the roads will affect every section of the country, but hits the east hardest. That section is left practically untouched on the first day. The second group walkout will come at 6 a. m. local standard time, November 1st. Thirteen roads in this group, including the Louisville and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis. Three of the remaining largest roads in the country are included in the third group on which the strike is set for 6 a. m. local standard time, November 3rd, when the entire Burlington system, New York Central lines and the entire Baltimore and Ohio will feel the strike blow. The balance of the third group and fourth group include the remaining roads of the country which will be included in the walkout November 5th.

$2,000,000 In Workers' Chest To Help Win the Strike

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Oct. 17—The railroad brotherhoods have a strike fund of $2,000,000 which is insufficient for a general strike of any length, John Grunau, president of the United Association of Railway Employees of North America and leader of the unauthorized switchmen's strike last year, declared today. Grunau issued a circular to 60,000 members of his organization outlining his position, but declaring he does not believe there will be a strike.

(By Associated Press)

Cleveland, Oct. 17—Proposals of the Public Group of the Railroad Labor Board to reduce the freight rates to prevent the railroad strike will not prove feasible, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the brotherhood of railroad engineers declared today.

He asserted that by the time the reduction got to the consumer it would amount to only half of one per cent.

(By Associated Press)

London, Oct. 17—The British government today decided to award the Victory Cross, the highest British award, to America's unknown warrior. Just previously the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest decoration was laid upon the simple inscribed marble slab in Westminster Abbey, which marks the tomb of Great Britain's "unknown warrior." The official presentation was made by Ambassador Harvey. The act of bestowing the medal was performed by General Pershing, who said it was a "slight token of our gratitude and affection toward this people."

Mr. Lee called the medal presentation a "message of fraternity direct from the American people."

Prime Minister Lloyd-George said, "This empire, in its remotest corners, will not miss the significance of this deed and this day." The entire ceremony was simple.

BINGHAM ASSERTS HE WANTS NO OFFICE

Sponsor For Burley Association Nails Rumor He Would Seek Political Plum

OWENTON, Ky., Oct. 17—Declaring that "there is not an office in the gift of any official or the voters of the United States" that he would accept, Judge Robert W. Bingham, owner of the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times, said in an address to tobacco growers of Owen county here that if the 75 per cent of the crop regarded as essential to the success of the Burley co-operative marketing movement is not signed by November 15, he will take it "as a notice that the Kentucky tobacco growers are not as interested in their own affairs as they should be" and that he will expect, "without rancor, to retire from the field."

Judge Bingham declared his purpose to "see this drive thru."

"We must have 75 per cent of the acreage by November 15, 1921," he said. "If we have not, I shall understand it to be a notice that the growers are not as interested in their own affairs as they should be, and I shall expect with out rancor, to retire from the field."

Judge Bingham has financed the organization of the growers up to the present time. Discussing this feature of the matter, he said:

"In this behalf I have given some money, which was a necessity to begin the movement: a lot of time and energy, and heart full of devotion to the people, who have been so good to me. Judge Bingham said:

"It has been my good fortune to have been associated in my life with a number of public movements. I have never seen so many big men working unselfishly for their community as are engaged in this burley organization.

This might be as good a time as any other for the big railroad strike that has been threatened for almost a score of years every time the workers didn't get what they demanded in the way of wages and hours. They "held up" Congress during the war and since then have received far higher wages than any other skilled workmen. Now with the railroads almost bankrupt, and everything else down below pre-war prices in numerous instances—they propose to tie up the entire country's commercial life because the Labor Board decreed a slight reduction in their pay. The strike will throw more millions out of employment and make conditions still harder. Very well, this question has to be settled some time and now is as good as any. Let them strike. Let the government call for volunteers to operate the railroads, if necessary, and protect them with the army, if protection is needed. What's the matter with the suggestion that the American Legion be asked to furnish volunteers to operate the railways? They saved the country from external aggression and undoubtedly can preserve it from internal anarchy, if that seems threatening.

Work Hard, Democrats!

Only a few weeks until the county elections are decided. Democrats should gird their armor on and tighten up for the battle to redeem old Madison. It's going to be a real battle. Our friends, the enemy, encouraged by the two big majorities in the last two years, think they are going to elect their entire county ticket. They are supremely confident. But that should only make Democracy work the harder. Never has such a splendid ticket been offered the voters as Democracy presents this year. From top to bottom there isn't a flaw. The men who carry Democracy's banner are true and tried; they represent the best citizenship of the county. They are certain to safeguard the interests of the taxpayers; they can be relied upon to give faithful, honest and efficient service.

It is the time for every man and woman of Democratic tendencies to stand true to the old flag. There should be no wavering; no hesitating in such an hour when the party is on trial and facing its severest test. True Democrats will forget personalities, disappointments and dissatisfaction. We all have them at times but this is the time for every drop of Democratic blood to forget the little things and rally to the defense of the ticket of splendid citizens who are offering their candidacies under the banner of the rooster. Vote 'er straight.

A. A. Bowmar, editor of the Versailles Sun, was an appreciated caller at the Daily Register office Saturday. Mr. Bowmar occupies a unique place, all his own in Kentucky country journalism. He is one of the few "rural roosters" who has the nerve to say just what's on his mind. He hews to the line and doesn't care where the chips fly. As he's invariably right, his constituents have learned to love his frankness, and there isn't a department in any country paper more widely read or more thoroughly respected than his "Thoughts of a Country Editor" in the Sun. Mr. and Mrs. Bowmar have many warm friends in Madison county.

Bennett—Brittain

The marriage of Miss Helen Rollins Bennett, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waller Bennett, and of Ensign Baldwin Brittain, U. S. Navy, which was solemnized on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, marked the culmination of a pretty romance extending back into the childhood of the dining room was the bride's cake, a wonderful confection frosted in white with an overturned basket of pink roses wonderfully real, adorning the top.

Promptly at four o'clock the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march flitting from the harp and piano played by the Misses Telford, hushed the guests into expectant silence and the bridal party appeared upon the winding stair, and slowly approached the altar. Miss Isabel Bennett, sister of the bride, with her lovely crest of burnished gold, was striking in a frock of white charmeuse and the bride leaning on her father's arm and wearing her mother's wedding robe shone for the occasion, was never lovelier—the handsome veil of real lace and stately train falling from the shoulders, making a picture that is old yet ever new, and always most appealing.

Ensign Brittain becomes the uniform which he wears, and as he approached the altar with his best man, Mr. Thomas L. Baldwin Jr., himself a recent bridegroom, his manliness and sincerity excited instant approval. Dr. Telford

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Revives The Blood To Healthy State

Stale blood blurs living. It dulls the love for pleasure, and weakens the spirit. Thoughts sink into an unredeemed derangement that no goading of the will can dispel. Where there was thrill of excitement, there is only an aching sensation of fatigue.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan taken regularly for a while puts a check to the debilitating effects of thin, watery blood. It supplies the blood with red corpuscles, steps it up to its normal, rich redness. Then it is that the pleasure of rhythmic living returns. The smoldering glow of life warms and brightens so that the pleasant sensation of eating, sleeping, walking in the golden sunshine, bathing deep the health-giving air, again become thrilling and full of delight.

Druggists sell Gude's Pepto-Mangan in both liquid and tablet form.

of the Presbyterian church, read the beautiful Episcopal service, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

After sincere and affectionate congratulations by the guests present and a delicious supper served by an out-of-town caterer, Mr. and Mrs. Brittain left on the five o'clock train for New York where Ensign Brittain will join his ship, the Maryland, the most recent of Uncle Sam's dreadnaughts.

One of the notable charms of this beautiful wedding was the costume worn by the bride's mother, a handsome satin brocade in grey, which was worn by her mother, Mrs. Curtis Field Burnam, at her golden wedding anniversary, a number of years ago. The gown had been remodeled and Mrs. Bennett's stately beauty was enhanced by the brilliant costume.

It was generally remarked by those present that it was a most distinguished crowd of people, Mrs. Carlo B. Brittain, the groom's mother, was lovely in a soft black gown, uncreased save by her hair which is beautifully soft and white; Miss Lucia Burnam was exquisite in black lace decollete, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Will Shanks, and Miss Olivia Baldwin, the groom's immediate family, were all present, and among the out-of-town guests there were Gov. and Mrs. Arthur Yager, of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Bowmar, of Versailles, Mrs. Broadhead and Miss Belle Breck, of Woodford county, Col. Overton Chenault, of Lexington, Mrs. Grady Kennedy, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Neal Roberts Edmund, of Louisville, and others.

NO HIDDEN JOKERS—A FAIR, SQUARE, ABOVE BOARD DEAL FOR ALL : : :

This contest opens October 11 and will close December 1, at 3 p.m., with the right reserved to extend the closing date to Saturday, December 8, or Saturday December 15th, at 3 p.m., notice of such extension to be given all candidates a week ahead.

Only one nomination ballot counted on any one candidate.

Candidates and their friends may clip as many as 150 vote ballots from the issues of the Daily Register as they wish and send them in. The vote coupons expire on the various dates printed thereon.

Candidates may solicit subscriptions anywhere.

Candidates may be aided by as many friends as they can secure to take subscription books and solicit in their behalf.

No church, school, lodge, or society can compete as an organization; this is a campaign for individuals.

No vote will be issued except the 150-vote ballots printed in each issue of the Daily Register voting certificates issued with each cash subscription secured and special extra coupons, for which all candidates compete on equal terms.

The subscription rate of the Daily Register will be given you and remains the same as heretofore.

There will be no "doubling" of candidates, pooling of votes, or transferring of votes from one candidate to another permitted. Votes issued with cash subscriptions, and extra vote coupons issued, cannot be transferred to another candidate after the subscription has once been turned in to the Daily Register office. All information, receipt books, circular letters, sample copies, etc., furnished candidates free of charge.

Any candidate living in Richmond or surrounding territory, polling the highest vote, will be awarded a Dodge Touring Car, the candidate polling the second highest vote will be awarded a Ford Sedan; the candidate polling the third highest vote will be awarded a VICTOR Talking Machine, and the candidate polling the fourth highest vote will receive a AN EDISON Talking Machine. These four prizes being known as the Grand Prizes.

Special other prizes will be given away from time to time, during this campaign. Any candidate competing actively to the end of the campaign and failing to win one of the Grand Prizes, or a special prize, and turning in at least $25 in cash subscriptions, business will be given ten per cent cash commission on the gross business he (or she) brings in. By any candidate competing actively to the end of the campaign we specifically mean one who turns in at least three yearly subscriptions during each of the last three weeks of the campaign.

The Daily Register reserves the right to reject the name of any undesirable candidate entered.

Any candidate who may stir up dissension or dissatisfaction among the candidates is subject to being dropped at once.

In case of a tie, identical prizes will be awarded those tying.

In case of a dispute, the Campaign Manager shall have the final decision.

The final count will be made by a committee of Madison county business or professional men, and their finding will be absolutely final.

Candidates entering this contest, agree to abide by these rules herein set forth, and such additional rulings as may be found necessary from time to time. Any Man, Woman, Boy or Girl (white) living in Madison county or adjoining territory, may compete.

Make all checks and money orders payable to the Richmond Daily Register, and address all matters relative to the campaign, to Campaign Manager, Lock Box 266, Richmond, Ky.

They're From Old Madison, Too

The Courier-Journal had the following of interest about two former residents of Madison county:

Two brothers from the edges of the continent met in the city nearest the center of population of the United States for the first time in nine years last night.

They are Joseph H. Tevis, of Baltimore, and D. R. Tevis, of Seattle, and they met at the Hotel Henry Watterson.

Joseph is a horseman on the eastern circuit, "D. R." is a business man. They like the city, they said.

Croquet Tournament Won By Richmond

Winning five straight games, Richmond completely outclassed Nicholasville here Wednesday, on their fine croquet grounds on Fourth street. Nicholasville just gave the local boys a little practice. First two games James Dearinger and Allen Douglas vs. J. S. Price and J. B. Chambers; third and fourth games, James Dearinger and Allen Douglas vs. A. C. McCleary and J. B. Chambers; fifth game, R. ## SOME INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT EASTERN

President's Annual Report For Year To Regents Shows Its Splendid Growth

DIXIE HIGHWAY IN GOOD CONDITION

Detailed Route Made By Wiley Baker, of Knoxville, Shows Condition of Entire Route

The report of President Coates of Eastern Kentucky State Normal, to the Board of Regents for the school year 1920-21, contains some facts that may be of interest to the readers of the Daily Register.

The enrollment in the Normal School for the year 1919-20 was 1,151; for 1920-21 it was 1,425. The total enrollment for 1919-20 was 1,408; for 1920-21 it was 1,679. In addition to the enrollment in residence, in 1919-20, there were 88 students in the extension department; in 1920-21, there were 1,643 enrolled. The total enrollment in 1917 was 1,000; in 1918, it was 1,167; in 1919, 1,490; in 1920, it was 3,322.

It is expected that the enrollment the present year in residence will reach 1,800 or 2,000. There are several causes for this increase: increased interest in education throughout the state, a greater demand for trained teachers, economic conditions, enlarged faculty at Eastern, new departments and new dormitories. The attendance at the present time, the beginning of the fourth week, is 62 per cent larger than it was at the close of the first term last year. Two members of the faculty at this time are giving their whole time to field work—Profs. Jayne and Lewis—building up the student body, helping normal students while in service, building up the Correspondence department and establishing study centers.

It may be of interest to note that Eastern will establish such a center whenever as many as ten teachers can be found who want the work. These teachers meet once a week, on Saturdays, for two hours for ten weeks and receive credits. Requests for the establishing of such centers are coming in frequently, while there are over 300 correspondence courses running in charge of Prof. J. R. Robinson.

The size of Eastern may be understood from the fact that there are regularly employed 34 teachers, 14 employees in the business office and other departments of administration, 11 employees in the dormitories, and 7 general laborers; in all, 66 persons. The total income from the state the past year was $127,152.00; income from other sources, $28,095.32; a total income of $156,247.92. Total operating expenses were $133,036.08; the cost to the state was $104,940.76; and the per capita cost of instruction based on the total resident enrollment, was $73.64. From these figures the people of Richmond may realize the size of the Normal school in their midst; and it is growing all the time.

Eastern is now supporting 18 departments of instruction, namely, education, agriculture, English, history and civics, Latin and modern languages, mathematics, science, art, reading and public speaking, physical education, home economics, industrial arts or manual training, music both vocal and instrumental, commerce library, high school, training school, correspondence and extension. These departments extend through the entire high school periods and the first two college years.

The attendance in the Normal School from Madison county during the year 1920-21 has been 187 students, a little over 13 per cent of the entire Normal attendance. The other 68 counties of the Normal districts furnished 87 per cent. The attendance in the Model School from Richmond and the country right around Richmond was 252 students. The cost to the state of the Model Training School for teaching alone during the year was $9,850, a per capita cost of $38.77. The entire attendance from Richmond and Madison county was 441 pupils or a little over 26 per cent of the total resident enrollment. To the Normal pupils who have appointments, there is no cost for tuition; to the Model pupils, only a $4 incidental fee for the whole year.

They Sho' Want That Pie

Washington, Oct. 17.—Dissatisfaction because of the number of democrats appointed under the Wilson regime still holding office in Washington and throughout the country. Senator Davis Elkins, of West Virginia, urged President Harding to force Cabinet officers to reorganize completely with republicans.

DIXIE HIGHWAY IN GOOD CONDITION

Detailed Route Made By Wiley Baker, of Knoxville, Shows Condition of Entire Route

With but few exceptions, and only two, detours necessary, the eastern link of the Dixie Highway between Knoxville and Cincinnati is in excellent shape, according to Wiley B. Baker, secretary of the Knoxville Automobile club, who has completed a log of the condition of the road over that route as well as down the western link, which runs thru Louisville and Nashville. His observations were based on the trip recently taken by a large number of Dixie Highway officials and enthusiasts to Cincinnati to attend the fall meeting of that association, says the Dixie Highway Magazine.

"The eastern link of the Dixie Highway is in fine shape, especially in dry weather," Mr. Baker said, "and there is more construction of good roads going on along this route than on the western link. The western route is not so good for travel in dry weather as the eastern link."

"From Knoxville to Cincinnati the mileage is 314 and within a year I believe that it will be possible for motorists to make the trip in a day due to the character of road building now going on. During this week I was informed by W. P. Moore, of the state highway commission that projects in Anderson and Campbell counties would be launched directly federal funds are available for the work, and this means that that portion of the Dixie Highway in Tennessee would receive needed attention within a year."

"On the western side through Louisville and Nashville no construction of roads of a permanent nature is under way. Several detours are necessary in Tennessee but the roads into Nashville and some of the Kentucky roads are in good shape," Mr. Baker said.

The chronological record of the eastern link of the Dixie Highway as prepared by Mr. Baker reads:

Knoxville to Clinton—"Starting out of Knoxville on Asylum street the street is in good condition in the city limits, but from University avenue to the New Gray cemetery is in fair shape, but a little rough. Leaving Bull Camp Pike at New Gray the Clinton pike all the way into Clinton is in good condition with the exception of about two rough stretches of a few hundred feet.

Clinton to LaFollette—"This stretch of the road is in good condition practically the entire distance. The only rough place being at Vasper, which is on account of repair work. From Vasper on to LaFollette through Jackboro the road is in splendid condition.

LaFollette to Jellico—"The road from LaFollette to Jellico through the Narrows is a good road to travel especially in dry weather but following two or three days of rain it would be necessary to use chains. This stretch of the road is unquestionably in better shape than at any time heretofore.

Jellico to Corbin—"From Jellico to Williamsburg is a splendid road but at Rockhold, Kentucky, there is a very bad hole, probably the worst of its kind anywhere between Knoxville and Cincinnati.

On account of putting in a new bridge at this place it is necessary to make a short detour and right in the dip where lots of loose dirt has been allowed to accumulate in this bad hole, but the contractor on the job has promised to fix this hole and I'm informed that he has made good his promise since my trip through there on September 8. There is a lot of construction work going on between Williamsburg and Corbin which necessitates few short detours, but the detour roads in this stretch are not bad.

Corbin to Livingston—"For almost four miles out of Corbin the road is pretty rough. The balance of the way into London is good. From London to East Bernstadt it is necessary to detour on account of road construction, but the detour road is in fairly good condition. From East Bernstadt to the Rockcastle river—a distance of about ten miles—it is necessary to use a detour road on account of road construction work. This detour is the worst of all on the entire trip. After fording the river the new graded road into Livingston is in good condition, but for a few rough spots. It would not be advisable to even attempt to use the detour road from East Bernstadt to Rockcastle river nor the new graded road around Gauley mountain from the river into Livingston in wet weather.

Livingston to Lexington—"The road is in good condition from Livingston to Mt. Vernon, a distance of ten miles. About eight or ten miles out of Mt. Vernon on the way to Berea there is a bad stretch of probably one and one-half miles. The balance of the road into Berea and on to Lexington through Richmond is in splendid condition.

Lexington to Cincinnati—"The road is in excellent shape all the way from Lexington to Cincinnati, a distance of 95 miles, thru Paris, Cynthiana, Falmouth, Independence, and Covington. This road is well marked by the Kentucky Motor club which makes it easy to travel by auto and never get off the right road."
